Benefits

Operating in a foreign territory can be difficult simply because "you do not know what you do not know". Our on the ground experts have years of practical experience and can guide you through the minefields of:

- establishing the correct legal entity;
- paying taxes;
- managing cash;
- paying employees and vendors;
- keeping the accounting records;
- complying with local rules and regulations.

More complex issues can arise around employment contracts, VAT claims, intercompany service agreements, permanent establishment risks and transfer pricing. The challenges get more difficult to manage the more countries you operate in.

We can assist you with all of these challenges and enable you to minimise the management time spent in maximizing the efficiency of your international operations.

In summary, our clients benefit from:

- significant cost savings;
- increased operational efficiency;
- additional professional support.

Case study

Our client operates in over 25 countries from the UK. They expanded quite rapidly and were working with a number of third parties which provided services across all 25 countries.

The challenges they faced were:

- variable standards in local service delivery;
- in some locations, difficulty in communicating in English;
- lack of control over the payroll in each country;
- an overall disjointed approach which was inefficient and frustrating for our client's personnel.

We provided the following services:

- one point of contact to co-ordinate all our services;
- an international payroll service across all countries which provided visibility, control and efficiency gains;
- integration of global payroll;

- support to open in new territories including entity formation, registration with the tax and administrative agencies, and ongoing payroll, accounting and compliance support;
- multi-country accounting support including bookkeeping, and year end accounts and tax compliance;
- advice on compliance issues in multiple countries.

Our client benefitted from an easier and more effective working relationship with one team and one point of contact. This was reflected in more cost effective services including a saving in management time, as less time was required to manage the overall relationship and day-to-day operations. The payroll solution delivered far greater standardisation in the process, visibility and control over payroll operations and central consolidated reporting. The availability of on the ground resource has ensured that compliance issues were understood and dealt with in a timely manner.
